FROM : Chief, Language Training School

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 22

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. A three-week intensive English course for two WH Division sponsored Latin Americans ended last Friday, 6 August, with gratifying results. The course was designed to prepare the students to profit fully from further training scheduled for them here in Washington this summer and fall. A typical work day included four hours of phonology, grammar and controlled conversation in the morning in the students' apartment, lunch and a field trip to various museums and monuments in the afternoon, and an after dinner session in their apartment in which they discussed the afternoon trip. Eight persons participated in the instruction, three of them wives of Agency employees.

2. In the Special Program of Proficiency Testing for SR Division, we have administered 2 more Russian examinations and sent a detailed report to that Division. In all, twelve SR employees have been tested thus far.

3. The series of intensive Spanish oral proficiency tests for DDP was completed on 9 August. Ninety-eight individuals, at levels 1 through 5, were tested. [REDACTED] on 11 August and plans are now under way for the French and German tests, which will be given in September.
